Baudelaire, Zola, Hugo, and Poe all wrote of the crowd; see Benjamin, Bodies were piled up around Paris. Adler, Manet, Oxford, RandomHouseWebster's Unabridged Dictionary. Why not share! Although all these aspects are now regarded as problematic, and must be vigorously questions, it should not be forgotten that the birth of department stores has also brought some positive effects, in that they have promoted—and in some cases, even initiated—desirable changes for society, particularly with regard to equality between men and women. Florent wassurprised at the calm of the marketers with their plaid clothing and tanned faces in themiddle of the long-winded haggling of the market.
