I have met stutterers in every career that, at twenty-two years old, I had assumed were nigh on impossible. Preview Your Review. But somehow I had lost my memory in the past couple of hours.

She is under my care; I feel that I have someone else to look after for the first time. Sep 19, Nicky rated it it was amazing. Lists with This Book. I have never stuttered in a room on my own, and I have never stuttered in front of people. We can trade our stutters for a new strange and unnatural way of speaking she describes it and I ached and laughed since I'd never had the opportunity to talk to another person who stutters and employed the techniques but the biggest cost of fluency is giving up our hard-earned determination and accomplishments.
