Truth lives in facts, in what we know and can measure and prove. But there is truth beyond that, too - truth that lives in the stories we tell each.

Truth, even hard, gritty, painful truth, bears transferrable principles. Memoirs It's as important in a memoir as it is in a novel to show and not just tell. Example.

She is a master at getting inside a story and suggesting ways to make it shine. Thank you for. Elena Dillon, author Breathe. Research can fill in some holes, but you will have to do a lot of inventing, and I
A thousand thanks, to Susanne Lakin for her editing guidance and expertise. Susanne Lakin, already a gem of a novelist, shines with extra brilliance through the facets of her superb editing and critiquing services.
A novel can't tell the truth by lying. This is the end - for now - of the Ella Marconi course not.
