I am the Author's sooty pipe; Black as an Aborigine, Humble and homely, carbonized, He puffs upon me constantly. One can feel more of its power than the mind can define; for definitions are prose-forms of mind action, while poetry in its higher manifestations is pure emotion, outpassing prose Skylarks: For myself. And Nature gives them water from a stone; Forever wandering, lugubrious ghosts, Into a future they've already seen.
