Men don't owe women and society. There is an old American story that fathers used to tell their boys. A common worst-case female archetype across cultures, thus, warns against it. He is open and welcoming to conspiracy theories backing his views of the world. Competitive sports, which were first organised in the second half of the 19th century, became a much-favoured means of pre-empting sissiness - and of mass-producing virile imperialists. However, clearly for Ethan, it was important to meet men who were able to embody Vic. This is an observation that will surface in the analysis of the selected texts, especially Breaking Bad.
