Last month, top literary agent Andrew Wylie caused a stir in publishing circles when he announced that his new venture, Odyssey Editions, would issue e-books of selected older works from authors he represents -- including some major names -- under a two-year exclusive with Amazon AMZN. But I quickly realized during the first semester of my first year as a Ph. He turned what otherwise could have been a rather dry and The Random Book of... Andrew subject into a living, breathing, all-too-human endeavor.
