The necrology of Stams records the death " VI Id Oct " of " domina Elizabeth regina prima fundatrix monasterii " []. Although the year is not indicated, Heinrich's years of birth and death must be approximately as estimated here in view of the tight chronology of the births of King Otto's children. Weiler However, Conrad died while returning from the East. Stuckeyed. However, he and subsequent emperors named Heinrich were normally referred to by the ordinal number attached to them as kings of Germany even after their imperial coronations. Some feel that Wolfram was unable to finish his poem, because he had diverged so far from his source that he could not realistically follow it to its conclusion. This was not uncommon.

However, he was struck by paralysis and had to be returned to Germany, where the relationship to Friedrich, perhaps his last patron, seems to have ended in a better way.
