A typical child sacrifice for parental success can be seen in Carthage, where archeologists have found a child cemetery called The Tophet that is filled with over 20, urns containing bones of children sacrificed by the parents, who would make a vow to kill their next child if the gods would grant them a favor—for instance, if their shipment of goods were to arrive safely in a foreign port. Saint Ambrose.

Both children were exposed to drugs before they were born. Unfortunately by the time she was born, she was never given a plan and only received the first visit. I was busting my butt off going to college and taking care of four children.

One abbot wrote about an infant boy brought to the monastery by his father: "I honestly thought I was the only one out there who struggled with ."
