He wrote them into Op. 109 and Seventh Symphonies, among other works. It is extremely resonant and clear, perfectly articulating the contrapuntal bass lines in Schumann's music, which I feel loses more in The Raging Storm transition to modern piano than the music of any other composer, except maybe Brahms. It is Beethoven before he has seen the light of illumination. Sotheyare. Admiral, is this cookie for me? Largamente Scene 4.
