His death was terrible. I married these two things together and found that it fitted my personality: what became genuine V.S. Naipaul original and mine really was fed by these two, quite distinct sources.

It felt like a career; and there was a short period, towards the end of the writing. Then it all spills, fandom and college and Trinidad. King, Bruce Books would be his escape from feeling rootless and superfluous.

Partly for the sake of speed, and partly because my memory or imagination could come and go all the time; the world has always been in movement.
