Mind you, I didn't ever feel the need to sit down and check The Ghost Of Waterloo the possible timelines - frankly, I found the book too engaging and too convincing to wonder too much about the historical veracity. They include Governor Ralph Darling forget the French and the Irish - the coffee here is even more revolting ; The Reverend Samuel Marsden the unforgiving Flogging Parson, throwing his weight around as usual ; and Obadiah Dawks garrulous journalist whose last scoop is deadly. But I get your gist.
