Filled with detail, each spread can be interrogated by readers, and conveys a sense of danger, energy and humour. Not you? The illustrations are wonderful, and I love the sort of cyclical nature of the story .
Older students could definitely relate to the theme of having a young sibling.
More titles may be available to you. Review quote "One of our cleverest writer-illustrators. That this tale has a comic book sense of timing is no surprise – author John Fardell is a cartoonist by trade and many pages are broken into comic-strip style frames, offering incremental shifts in perspective.
